

We are pleased to announce that Cantor Josiah Redfern will be chanting the service on Rosh Hashanah and Yom Kippur. Cantor Redfern received his cantorial certificate from the Belz School of Jewish Music, Yeshiva University. Additionally he has studied at Lincoln Square Yeshiva, New York City, Hebrew Arts School of Music and Dance; Jewish Music Teachers Training Kollel of San Diego, Yeshiva Ner Israel, Baltimore MD. Cantor Redfern studies chazzanut and voice with Cantor Daniel Gildar.

He has served as Shaliach Tsibur in congregations throughout the United States and Canada for over twenty years. He officiates at life cycle events, trains Bar and Bat Mitzvah students, instructs people in prayer chanting, Torah and Haftorah chanting. He also trains student in proper use of the voice. Cantor Redfern has been a soloist in Zemer Chai, Washington's Jewish Community chorus for many years.

In addition, he has received the Distinguished Citizen Award from City of Annapolis, Maryland and the Esteemed Colleague Certificate from Cantorial Council of America.

Many of us were privileged to meet and hear him when he visited the Shul and served as cantor on Shabbat Nachamu, July 28, and we look forward to an inspiring holiday season with the services being conducted by Rabbi Kelman and Cantor Redfern.
